

My Baby

"No Wealth Can Match This Record's Worth
My Baby's First Five Years On Earth"

My Precious Baby...

Thru God's wisdom and a great love,
sanctified by His blessing, you have been given to me to cherish and to care for always.

The first five years of your life will be full of many wonderful events too utterly adorable to be forgotten or to go unrecorded.

And so, on this date, I have started to fill in the pages of this little book knowing they will bring me great comfort later on, and hoping they will bring happiness to you too
by and by when you have traveled thru the years of babyhood and childhood to maturity.

TODAY

Five years have passed since I started to keep this record of your babyhood. They have been gloriously happy years thru which you have grown from just a tiny bundle of sweetness to budding childhood.

And so, although I regret these years cannot be lived again, there is great happiness in my heart as I watch your little feet starting to walk on a brand new road of life.

Some day this book will belong to you and I hope you will enjoy reading its pages as much as I have loved filling them in with records that will live in my heart always.
